

Stadsgroenteboer House Rules

We are happy to welcome you to our farm!
This is mainly a production space and a running farm. During your event, the farmers still go about their chores like harvesting, watering, or weeding. You will have one reference person to ask for directions or help if needed.

We take much care of our farm and ask you to do the same. Please treat the land, farmers, and animals with respect and follow the below house rules.
